NOTICES

Cathedral Clergy

The Very Rev'd Lee Batson (Dean of Newcastle), The Rev'd Canon Ruth Hulse (Canon for Worship & Congregational Life), and The Rev'd Canon Zoe Heming (Canon for Mission) are happy to be contacted via their respective email addresses, dean@newcastlecathedral.org.uk (Lee), ruth.hulse@newcastlecathedral.org.uk and zoe.heming@newcastlecathedral.org.uk.

Cathedral Hearing Loop

We need volunteers (after a 10am service) who are willing to help us to test the hearing loop from different positions (& with different hearing aids). Anyone with a hearing impairment, and/or uses hearing aids, please grab a cuppa and gather near the altar to share invaluable experience and do what we can to improve things. It won't take long!

Newcastle Foodbank Collection for Harvest

Newcastle Cathedral is collecting items for Newcastle Foodbank ahead of our Harvest Festival on 20 October. The donation point will be in the South Quire Aisle, near the entrance to the Vestry, and you are welcome to bring contributions at any time. The Foodbank has provided a list of specific items which are the most urgently needed; these include tinned goods, long-life milk, pasta sauces, tea, coffee, and toiletries. For the full list, please visit newcastlecathedral.org.uk/harvest. Thank you in advance for your contributions!

New Book Released by Former Dean of Newcastle

Geoff Miller, our former Dean, has published a new book on Amazon titled 'Who Was Joe Daniels? Does It Matter?'. In this heartfelt story, Geoff shares his family's experience of life on a housing estate in post-war Manchester, weaving in a touch of mystery along the way. You can purchase the book online at www.tinyurl.com/JoeDanielsBook (£4.99 for the Kindle edition, £7.99 for paperback, and £9.99 for hardcover), or if you know him personally, you can contact Geoff to order a copy.

Online Security Reminder

We would like to remind all members of our congregation to be vigilant online. Please don't click links or open attachments you weren't expecting, even if the email appears to be from a member of the Cathedral staff or clergy.
