5 April 2026

TODAY

Christ is Risen. Alleluia.

Thank you from all the clergy to everybody who has contributed in whatever way to the Cathedral Life for this year's Holy Week. The jewels of the Church really are her people!

Accessing Orders of Service on Your Phone. Thank you to everyone who accessed last Sunday's Order of Service via the QR code, helping us reduce paper use. You can scan this QR code or visit the link:

Funeral Notice. Newcastle Cathedral is saddened by the news of the death of Ruth Lunn. The funeral will take place at the West End Crematorium at 12:30 on the 17th of April. May the Lord grant Eternal Rest unto her.

St Aidan's Way Pilgrimage, 11 April

As part of our 'Year of Sharing', the Diocese of Newcastle is delighted to be launching its very own pilgrimage route, St Aidan's Way. From the 'first cathedral' on Holy Island, to the 'new cathedral' in Newcastle, we're looking forward to walking in the footsteps of St Aidan, with opportunities to reflect on his role as peacemaker. On 11 April, pilgrims will walk from Belford to Seahouses. Meet at St Mary's Belford at 10am for a short Service of the Word before setting off.

There is plenty of street parking near both the starting point of St Mary's Belford NE70 7LS and the end point of St Paul's Seahouses NE68 7TT. Transport is not provided for this stage so please arrange with a fellow pilgrim or pilgrims to share lifts with at least one person leaving their car at the end point and another at the start point. Snacks, water, lunch, and sensible clothes are advised.

Please contact, Lee before Wednesday 8 April to let him know if you plan to join the group so we can get an idea of numbers. If you are struggling to arrange your own transport, please do speak to Lee about this.

Christian Meditation The final session of the Christian Meditation Group will take place on Sunday the 19th of April at 11:45 in the Volunteers Hub. Join us as we contemplate the Resurrection.

Looking ahead

APCM, 26 April, following the 10.00am service.

All are welcome to attend the Cathedral Annual meeting, and the bring and share lunch afterwards. Elections are open until 21 April for Cathedral Wardens and Deanery Synod Reps. The electoral roll application deadline is 9am on 9th April for the roll to be revised prior to the meeting. This will be viewable on request from 11 April by contacting the office. Annual reports will be available on Sunday 12 April.

Confirmation Service, 7 June.

If you, or someone you know, is interested in being Confirmed on 7th June, please get in touch with Ruth who would be very pleased to speak to you about it. Confirmation marks the point in the Christian journey at which you affirm for yourself the faith into which you have been baptised and your intention to live a life of faith. This affirmation is confirmed through prayer and the laying on of hands on the head, by the confirming bishop, as the Church asks God to give you power through the Holy Spirit to help you to live in the way of Jesus. If you haven't been baptised, don't worry! Baptism can take place at the same time, or beforehand.

ONGOING EVENTS

Organ Recital, Monday 30 March, 1:05pm This week's recital will be given by James Waston from Newcastle Cathedral. Suggested donation £5.

50 Faces of the Holy Land (Exhibition)

May

The '50 Faces of the Holy Land' project is a photographic exhibition, curated by Friends of the Holy Land, designed to highlight the lives of the Christian people in Israel and Palestine. The exhibition, featuring photos by Marcin Mazur, tells the stories of 50 people living in the Holy Land – Israeli and Palestinian, Christian, Jewish, Muslim, Samaritan, and Druze.

To mark the '50 Faces of the Holy Land' exhibition's time in Newcastle, there will be an inclusive service of Choral Evensong at 6pm on Wednesday 6 May. The service will be followed by a Q&A with Brendan Metcalfe, CEO, Friends of the Holy Land. Drinks will be available.
